A Few Words From Our President

Dear Graduating Seniors:

Congratulations on your graduation from Worcester State College.

Graduation from college is a milestone event in one's lifetime and you deserve great accolades for that acchievement. Your degree from Worcester State is the culmination of years of study, hard work and personal sacrifice. You will find in the years ahead that the effort was worth it and that your life will be enriched in many ways as a result.

As a Worcester State alumnus you now take on new responsibilities. The College has launched a new era with an expanded and focused mission. We are dedicated and determined to shape a greater future for the College and the Greater Worcester community. Your continued involvement with Worcester State, as a member of our newest class of alumni, is not only desirable but necessary if you wish your alma mater and the value of your investment in it to grow.

Again, Congratulations and please maintain the connection!

Sincerely,

Kalyan K. Ghosh

When life becomes too complicated
I simplify it
While I'm intoxicated
Butt on stool, I occupy space
Engrossed in the drama of Melrose Place
Watching some who throw darts
Others mending lonely hearts
Those who fall short of a one night stand
Go home to resolve the situation by hand
But I still sit while the world revolves
At the bottom of the Guiness, my problem resolves
Itself, my vision blurry
But I won't hurry
There's three more cases of stout on the shelf
As I lurch from my seat, the counter I grip
I leave the lovely barmaids a generous tip
Home I stagger, with a Keith Richards swagger
I smoked my whole pack, but I know I'll be back
Cause I wanna be where everybody knows my name

The World Expresses Itself

Flanked by forklifts carrying reams of government rules and regulations, President Clinton and Vice President Gore outlined plans to cut, consolidate and reshape the federal bureaucracy.

It was the wettest story of the summer. The floods that washed across the Midwest may have been the worst in American history, and they captured the concern of people across the nation.

Russia, one of the world's great powers, experienced political upheaval in 1993. The world was stunned by the sight of fire raging uncontrolled inside the parliament building.

NOTE: PICTURES AND COPY THANKS TO AP WORLDWIDE NEWS SERVICES

ne Civil War in what was once Yugoslavia moved through its second ear at terrible human cost. Many people were forced to live under- ound while fighting for their freedom.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The meetings may have been boring and their speakers not so exciting, but if it weren't for the Student Senate our Worcester State College "experience" would not have been the same.

CENTER

If there was only one place on this campus where people could EXPRESS THEMSELVES, it would be the Student Center.....

Everyone eats, drinks, talks, hangs-out, studies, or works in this building. And it is the people that work here that give it it's character, and spreads all the rumors.

Goodbye .....

Well, the end of our college days are finally here, We have spent four years at Worcester State College, making friends, studying, learning, and most of all creating memories. We have learned about ourselves, our goals, and feelings, and about our friends with whom we have shared our lives. The lasting friendships and memories of the special times we've shared can never be erased. By saying goodbye and completing Senior Week may bring tears to our eyes but memories of Worcester State College will always bring back smiles. As the song goes,
" You know life is all about expression
You only live once and your not coming back so.....
EXPRESS YOURSELF"
- Salt N' Pepa
